

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11, 1 A. M.

Would any lady, well qualified to teach, like to take charge of a common school during the Summer months for fair wages at a height above the Kentucky river?

A fleet of coal barges, loaded with coal from the mines of the Breckinridge Canal Coal Company, passed Cairo on the evening of the sixth of April on their way to New Orleans. They are under the charge of Mr. John J. Augustine, who will do all that possibly can be done to introduce this valuable and most extraordinary coal to the notice of the citizens of New Orleans.

The Glendale, which arrived yesterday, reports having passed the steamer Monongahela at Island 100, in the Mississippi, and the Glendale, with the exception of one, were again loaded.

The steamer reports that the crew of the Glendale were engaged in saving the freight. She had two lighters alongside of her for that purpose. The boat will probably be raised.

The newly elected city officers of Cincinnati entered upon the discharge of their duties on Monday. Dr. Thos. O. Edwards was elected president of the council. The message of Mayor Farren is brief and to the point.

Farm for Sale.—Mr. Breeden advertises this morning three farms in Clark county, opposite this city, one farm in each county, one in Marion, one in Franklin, and one in Perry.

The Concert to-day.—Those who desire to encourage the cultivation of music in our midst should not neglect to attend the concert at Old Fellow's Hall to-night by Mr. Henry Douglass.

He has been a very successful teacher in our midst. Mr. D. will be assisted by his pupils and a number of his best amateur performers.

A part of the programme is given in the advertisement in another column. The admission is only 25 cents.

BIBLE REVISION ASSOCIATION.—The third annual anniversary of the Bible Revision Association convened in St. Louis on Friday.

Delegates from Kentucky, Illinois, Arkansas, and Missouri were present. Dr. S. W. Lyall, of Ky., called the meeting to order.

Dr. Lyall recurred in an appropriate manner to the death of the lamented John L. Walker, LL. D.

Woman Starred.—A woman named Mary Walker, residing on Marshall street, was stabbed on 9th and Locust street, on Friday night.

Her persecutor was standing 6 feet in front of her house talking to him, and, holding his ground, turned to the man and, when he plunged the knife into her left shoulder, inflicting a dangerous wound. He then fled.

MEMPHIS COMMERCIAL HOTEL.—Some of our old acquaintances in Memphis tantalize us every few days by enclosing to us a bill of fare of the Commercial Hotel of that city. We cannot look over the long list of luxuries daily served up by the excellent proprietors of that establishment without an almost irresistible desire to start right off for Memphis and take lodgings in our old quarters.

DR. RAPHAEL AND WRIGHT.—We wish our readers to bear in mind that the course of lectures by Dr. Raphael and Dr. Wright will commence on Friday night. The lecture on that night will be Dr. Raphael on the deeply interesting subject of the unity of the human race. He is a man of ability and great research, and he will present to his audience many facts and startling stories.

Dr. Wright's reputation, both as a chemist and as a lecturer on chemistry, is very high indeed. His lectures will be exceedingly interesting and instructive. We advise all to take seat tickets at once.

GENERAL COUNCIL.—This body was again in session last night.

The returns of the recent city election were received, and certificates of election were ordered to be issued to the various officers elect, including John Barbee as mayor of the city.

The city attorney and mayor were directed to take up the cause of the removal of the progress of the tearing up of Main street, east of Twelfth, by the Portland Railroad Company.

The Common Council passed a resolution tendering to Chas. Ripley a vote of thanks for his courteous, dignified, and impartial manner in which he discharged the arduous duties of President of the Board, who, in a few appropriate and pertinent remarks, returned his acknowledgments thereto, when the Board adjourned sine die.

KANSAS ELECTION.—A telegraphic dispatch from Kansas says:

A majority of pro-slavery members in each house of the Legislature have received certificates of election, and nearly all have been seated.

George Washington Stevens, son of Hon. William Stevens, Washington Territory, was drowned while attempting to swim across the Columbia river, on the 10th of February. He was twenty-three years of age.

To-day was most exciting, the authorities having been informed that a large number of those concerned were held to bail in one thousand dollars each.

The news of the failure of Adams & Co. to express to Oregon by land, and parties involved in the affair, were suspended and the religious exercises were suspended, and a general fight ensued outside the building, when the priest's order was being carried out, the friends of the priest were without, including a few within the building, and the party who favored the priest, who had been admitted to bail, were within.

On Thursday last, the 22d of February, all the consular flags were hoisted, and the ships in the harbor dressed, in honor of the anniversary of the birth of Washington.
